Dear Walter:

Red White has told me of your good offer to come down and talk with me about your recent trip to Europe, and particularly concerning the information you gained [redacted]

I appreciate this very much, and would, of course, be delighted to see you. However, since I believe you had talks with our man [redacted] and he has kept me fully advised, I do not believe that I should ask you to make a special trip.

If you are going to be in town at any time please give me a ring. It is always a pleasure to see you, and I sincerely appreciate your continued interest in the Agency.

Sincerely,
